

ELIZABETH LUH

426 Thompson St., Room 2014 ◊ Ann Arbor, MI 48108
(541) · 760 · 3982 ◊ eluh@umich.edu ◊ elizluh.github.io

CURRENT POSITION

Postdoctoral Research Fellow, CJARS, University of Michigan, 2020-present

EDUCATION

PhD., Economics, University of Houston, 2020

M.A. Economics, Economics, University of Houston, 2016

B.S. Economics with honors and Mathematics, University of Oregon, 2014

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Applied Microeconomics, Labor Economics, Public Economics, Economics of Crime and Discrimination

WORKING PAPERS

“The Impact of Criminal Financial Sanctions on Labor Outcomes and Recidivism” (joint with Carl Lieberman and Michael Mueller-Smith)

“Not So Black and White: Uncovering Racial Bias from Systematically Misreported Trooper Reports” under review

“The Impact of Financial Sanctions in the U.S. Justice System: Regression Discontinuity Evidence from Michigan’s Driver Responsibility Program” (joint with Keith Finlay, Matthew Gross, and Michael Mueller-Smith) under review

WORKS IN PROGRESS

“Effects of Disparate Parking Enforcement on Long-term Outcomes” (joint with James Reeves)

“Effect of Early Education on Long term Educational Outcomes” (joint with Dan Engster, Scott Hofer, and M.C. Sunny Wong)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Houston
Instructor

August 2016 - Present
Houston, TX

- Chinese Economy: Spring 2018
- Intermediate Microeconomics: Fall 2017, Summer 2018, Summer 2019
- Principles of Microeconomics: Fall 2015, Summer 2016

AWARDS AND GRANTS

- 2021 National Science Foundation, “Effects of Financial Sanctions in the Criminal Justice System,” 2021-2023
- 2019 Dr. Walter J. Primeaux Jr. and Natalie A. Primeaux Scholarship Endowment
Awarded to Ph.D. student who has made substantial progress on theses
University of Chicago Becker Friedman Institute Price Theory Summer Camp
Cullen Fellowship Travel Grant, University of Houston
Competitive fellowship program to support graduate student travel
- 2018 Best Graduate Presentation
Given for best presentation of a 4th year student in Ph.D. workshop;
Awarded with paid trip to the Southern Economic Association Meetings
- 2014 Graduate Fellowship, University of Houston

PRESENTATIONS

- 2022 Texas Economics of Crime Workshop, Western Economic Association Annual Conference, Conference of Empirical Legal Studies, Virtual Crime Economics APPAM (planned), Southern Economic Association Conference (planned)
- 2021 APPAM, Missouri Valley Economic Association Annual Conference
- 2019 Texas Econometrics Camp, Western Economic Association Annual Conference, STATA Texas Empirical Micro Conference (Poster), Missouri Valley Economic Association Annual Conference, University of Houston’s Graduate Research and Scholarship Project
- 2018 Southern Economic Association Conference, STATA Texas Empirical Micro Conference

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Referee for American Economic Journal: Economic Policy, American Economic Review, The Economic Journal

Moderator for Association for Mentoring in Economics Panel Discussion

PAST WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2018 - 2019 University of Houston Hobby School of Public Affairs, Research Assistant

OTHER INFORMATION

Citizenship: U.S.A.